

Fall 2004

14th Class Day Final Report

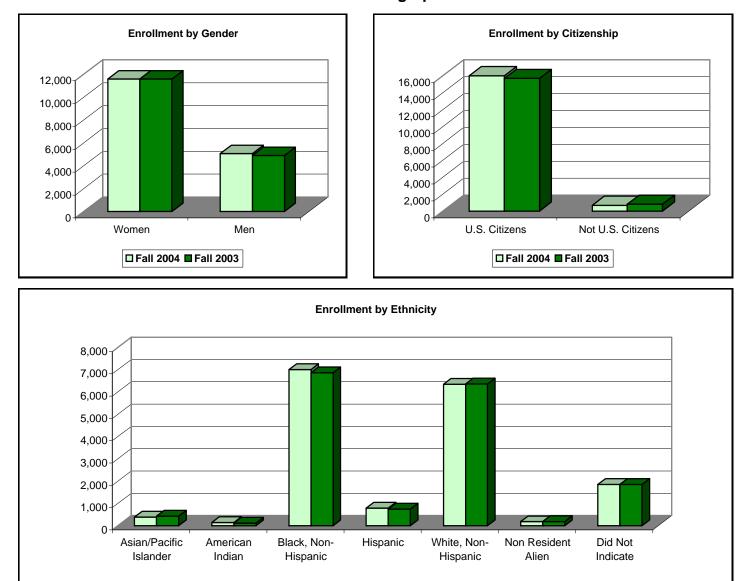

Revised June 7, 2006

By The Office of Institutional Research

Summary

- Enrollment increased by 1% from 16,500 to 16,669, reaching our highest enrollment since Fall of 2003.
- Male students increased 3%, Female students remained the same. This reverses the trend for the female population to grow faster than the male population. The ratio of men to women remains 30% to 70% respectively.
- Black students increased by 2 % and now make up 42% of our total student population, and 47.2% of our population for which ethnicity is indicated.
- Northshore site had the largest percentage increase, 19%, while Charity School of Nursing also had an increase of 19%.
