POLICY STATEMENT

Delgado Community College receives donations of movable property from external organizations and individuals when the property is deemed useful for the College. The Office of Institutional Advancement serves as the initial contact for all property donations to the College. All property donated to Delgado must be handled in accordance with State of Louisiana Property Control Regulations and the College's Management and Control of State Property policy and procedures.

When appropriate, the donated property becomes part of the College's state inventory list. In order to ensure proper inspection, acceptance, and acknowledgement of useful moveable property donations the procedures outlined specifically in this memorandum must be followed.

PROCEDURES & SPECIFIC INFORMATION

1. Purpose

To publish the policy and procedures for accepting movable property donations to the College.

2. Scope and Applicability
