

TUITION EXEMPTION FOR SENIOR CITIZENS

As authorized by Delgado's former management board, the Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System, prior to transfer to the Louisiana Community and Technical College System in 1999, and as applied according to the autonomy provided for by Louisiana Revised Statute 17:1807, Delgado offers a tuition exemption for senior citizens as follows:

Any person 60 years of age or older who registers for three credit hours or less per semester may do so at no charge for tuition but must pay all required fees. Credit hours enrolled in by such individuals in excess of three hours will require payment of the usual tuition charges.
