UHC Mission Statement

The University of Holy Cross is a unique Catholic institution of higher learning founded by the Marianites of Holy Cross. Rooted in a belief in human dignity, the University of Holy Cross educates the minds and hearts of its students. The University is centered on effective and innovative teaching, intelligence exercised across disciplines, practical reasoning, and communication with others. All members of the University strive for excellence and contribute their knowledge and experience in their chosen work, community, and ultimately the world in need.

Records

UHC will keep the records of all students who register for academic credit through the collaborating institution, including grades, and will supply transcripts of courses taken when required.

Program Descriptors

Delgado Community College (DCC) Culinary students who successfully complete their degree in Professional Culinarian or Culinary Management with the courses listed in this agreement are permitted to transfer them to University of Holy Cross (UHC) Food Science degree program within in the Department of Biologic and Physical Sciences. The total number of credit hours required to complete a bachelor's degree in Food Science from UHC is 120 semester hours and students can transfer up to 57 semester hours for degree credit from the DCC Culinary Arts and 24 semester hours for degree credit from the DCC Culinary Management programs. This is a 2 + 2 program whereby DCC students will earn a bachelor's degree from UHC after successfully completing at least 63 additional semester hours at the upper level at UHC and meeting all UHC degree requirements. DCC students will follow the requirements in the UHC Undergraduate Catalog in force at the time they entered DCC, provided the Catalog is not over 10 years old and there was no break in enrollment of over 5 years. In order to graduate from UHC, students must complete at least 50% of the courses in their bachelor's degree program at UHC with a quality point ratio of 2.5 or better in all work attempted at UHC.

Written English Proficiency Test

Students transferring ENG 102 (English Composition II) are required to take the English Proficiency Examination, administered by the English Program Coordinator, during transfer orientation and thereafter by appointment for those registering late. A mean score of 2 on the AAC&U (American Association of Colleges and Universities) Written Communication Value Rubric must be achieved. Students who do not achieve that benchmark score may petition the English Program Coordinator to repeat the test. Those who do not achieve a rubric score of 2 upon the second attempt are required to pass ENG 201, Introduction to Writing in the Disciplines, a non-credit tuition-free course, before they are allowed to take upper-level writing intensive courses in their major programs. Students are urged to take this course during the first or no later than the second semester after transfer admission. An administrative fee will be assessed when students must repeat ENG 201.

Prerequisites

A cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher is required for transfer credits.

Faculty Qualifications and Teaching Methodologies

The signatures below certify that the instructors of record in the programs offered by both UHC and the collaborating institution are qualified, as per SACSCOC Faculty Credentials Guidelines, and that qualified and competent faculty members agree on content and the teaching methodologies of the courses.

General Transfer Course Listings

The list below documents courses approved for transfer between DCC and UHC. Some UHC courses require prerequisites. See both institutions' catalogs for information that is more detailed. The DCC courses listed below are eligible for admission into the UHC Food Science programs. Articulation agreements are subject to change. Questions regarding UHC courses and transfer articulation may be directed to the Enrollment Management Office, 504-398-2175 or admissions@uhcno.edu.

Program Evaluation

UHC and DCC representatives will evaluate, on a regular basis, the performance of 2 + 2 students and other transfer students in upper level courses and compare their performance to that of continuing UHC students. If the performance of 2 + 2 students is significantly lower than that of continuing UHC students or they have a quality point ratio of less than 2.5 in all work attempted at UHC, faculty representatives from UHC and DCC will meet to re-design or amend the agreement.

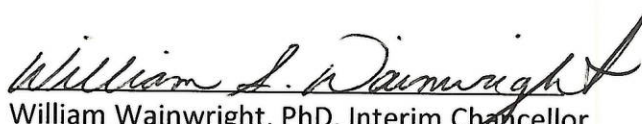

Program Renewal

This agreement shall be renewed every three years from the date of signing (below) and will be continued, modified, or terminated upon mutual agreement of the undersigned parties. In the event that either party wishes to modify or terminate the agreement, notification must be given no less than 60 days prior to the end of the semester in which the agreement is in effect.
