Delgado

Title:	Assistant Department Chair
Reports to:	Dean of Academic Division and/or College-Wide Department Chair
	 Participates in Program review and accreditation, Advisory Committees/Boards, and master syllabi review, revision, and distribution to faculty. Assists in the review of faculty course syllabi to ensure adherence to master syllabi and compliance with college policy

	 Faculty Assists in the recruiting and hires of adjunct and full-time faculty Assists in new faculty orientation Assists in ensuring completion of all paperwork required for new faculty onboarding Assists in the observation and evaluation of adjunct faculty Assists in ensuring faculty submission of beginning-of-semester and end-of-semester course documents Student Provides registration and advising assistance to students Assists in the coordination of prerequisite verification and provides registration overrides Assists in completion of student forms (change of student record, grade change, etc.) College Assists in the development and completion of program and annual unit assessments Assists in the collection and analysis of department data Liaises with Testing Center, the Advising Center, Registrar's Office, and other college units Attends relevant division, campus, and college meetings
Qualifications,	The Assistant Department, or site Chair, is appointed by the Dean on an annual Experience and	basis and holds faculty appointment; meets minimum professional appointment	and educational requirements for the teaching discipline (or of one of the teaching disciplines in a supervised department); has expertise in a discipline of a supervised department and, as applicable, maintains current program-related certification/licensure.

Review: Academic Affairs Council 6/9/2021

Approval: Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs 6/9/2021