

PROMOTION PROCESS GUIDELINES

The following promotion process guidelines are established in accordance with AA-2321.11, Promotion-in-Rank.

1. Promotion Committees

A. Peer Committee

The Peer Committee is optional and is formed by the faculty member who wants to avail themselves of this option. The role of the Peer Committee is to provide assistance and feedback to the faculty member in creating and reviewing professional goals and accomplishments. This committee should be consulted annually before the Promotion Portfolio is submitted to the Division Dean. The faculty member should have an ongoing professional dialogue with the members of their peer committee.

Ideally, the Peer Committee will be composed of three or more colleagues selected by the faculty member. It is suggested that it include one faculty member drawn from the applicant's division, one from outside the division, and one or more colleagues from any area, one of these being a full professor.

B. Division Portfolio Promotion Committee

(1) Role/Eligibility

The role of the Division Promotion Committee is to determine if the promotion portfolios meet the criteria for promotion. Promotion portfolios that meet the criteria must receive a "yes" vote for promotion. Those portfolios that do not meet the criteria must receive a "no" vote. (Either a "yes" or a "no" is REQUIRED for each portfolio).

Serving on division promotion committees is a faculty responsibility. However, faculty members who served on a division promotion committee the previous year may eliminate their names from the selection pool before selection in the current year. Additionally, permission not to serve on a committee may be granted by the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs upon presentation of extraordinary circumstances that would warrant an exception to this policy. To be eligible to serve on the Committee, a faculty member must meet the following criteria:

- Be employed as a full-time faculty member in the division (not on a limited appointment);
- Hold the rank of Assistant Professor or higher, have been employed full-time at Delgado Community College at that rank or higher; and have been promoted at Delgado Community College; and
- Not be an applicant for promotion during the academic year in which they serve on the Committee.

(2) Responsibilities

- Review all portfolios for promotion submitted within the department and vote “yes” or “no” as to whether the criteria for promotion to the next academic rank were met by each candidate.
- Provide written support for each portfolio denial and attach it to the Division Committee Recommendation Form, Form 2321/003, (Attachment C) to be turned in to the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs.
- Forward the portfolios, the Division Committee Recommendation Form, and any written support for denials to the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs by the date specified in the Promotion Timeline.
- Send a copy of the Division Recommendation Form with any attached support to the Division Dean.
- Maintain confidentiality of committee discussions and decisions. Committee members must not discuss deliberations outside the committee meetings and must direct all questions concerning decisions to the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs.

C. College Promotion Committee

(1) Role/Eligibility

The role of the College Promotion Committee is to determine if the promotion portfolios meet the criteria for promotion. Those portfolios that meet the criteria must receive a “yes” vote for promotion. Those portfolios that do not meet the criteria must receive a “no” vote. Either a “yes” or a “no” is REQUIRED for each portfolio).

(2) Responsibilities

- Elect a Chair and Chair-Elect from the committee members.
- Review all portfolios for promotion submitted from the Division Promotion Committees and vote “yes” or “no” as to whether the criteria for promotion to the next academic rank were met by each candidate.
- Provide written support for each portfolio denial and attach it to the College Committee Recommendation Form, Form 2321/005, (Attachment E) to be turned in to the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs.
- Forward the portfolios, the College Committee Recommendation Form and any attached support to the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs by the date specified in the Promotion Timeline.
- Send a copy of the College Committee Recommendation Form and any attached support to the appropriate Division Dean.
- Meet (College Committee Chair only) with the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs to compare the Division Committee Recommendation Form with the College Committee Recommendation Form in order to determine which portfolios have received a split vote. The Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs will then convene the Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council to vote on the split-vote portfolios.
- Once the Academic Promotion Appeals Affairs Council has convened, meet (College Committee Chair only) with the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs to complete the College Committee Recommendation Form, which will list all candidates who have met criteria for promotion. (This list will also include the names of the candidates who have received a “yes” vote from the Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council).
- Meet (College Committee Chair only) with the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs to discuss recommendations for changes in policies and procedures to be presented to the College-wide Academic and Student Affairs Council and any appropriate standing committees.
- Make recommendations to the Academic and Student Affairs Council with a copy to the Faculty Senate President concerning changes in the procedure.

- Maintain confidentiality of committee discussions and decisions. Committee members must not discuss deliberations outside the committee meetings and must direct all questions concerning decisions to the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs.

D. Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council

(1) Role/Eligibility

The role of the Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council is to resolve split vote situations that occur when a candidate receives one “yes” vote and one “no” vote from the Division Promotion Committee and the College Promotion Committee. In these situations, the Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council is to determine if the promotion portfolios meet the criteria for promotion. Those portfolios that meet the criteria must receive a “yes” vote for promotion. Those portfolios that do not meet the criteria must receive a “no” vote. Either a “yes” or a “no” is REQUIRED for each portfolio.

(2) Responsibilities

- Review all portfolios submitted from the College Promotion Committee and vote “yes” or “no” as to whether the criteria were met for promotion to the next academic rank by each candidate.
- Provide written support for each portfolio denial and attach it to the Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council Recommendation Form, Form 2321/007, (Attachment G).
- Provide the Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council Recommendation Form and any attached support to the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs who will meet with the Chair of the College Promotion Committee to compile the final, comprehensive list of recommended promotions.
- Send a copy of the Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council Recommendation Form and any attached support to the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs who will notify the Chancellor of the recommendations.

2. Promotion Process

A. Applicant's Verification of Eligibility by Division Dean

Faculty members who wish to apply for promotion must complete and submit the Verification of Eligibility Form, Form 2321/001A, and Verification of Documentation Form, Form 2321/001B (see Attachment A) to the Division Deans, according to the timeline, verification of last date of application for most recently attained promotion (or date of hiring), and supervisor evaluation summary sheets for the last three consecutive academic years, not including the current academic year nor any year prior to the academic year in which the applicant previously applied for the last approved promotion. Division Deans are responsible for guaranteeing eligibility for promotion by verifying documentation.

The Division Dean will notify faculty members of their eligibility by completing and returning the Verification of Eligibility Form according to the timeline. This form, with the annual supervisor evaluation summary sheets, will become the cover page for the application.

B. Eligible Applicants

Eligible applicants are responsible for completing the Promotion Portfolio Routing Sheet, Form 2321/001C, (see Attachment A) and submitting their Promotion Portfolio and all supporting documentation, in hard copy through the 2023-2024 academic year or via the optional online Canvas Promotion Portfolio portal, which will be required in 2024-2025, to the Division Dean on or before the date specified in the yearly timeline. This application is available on the College's web site and on computer disk in each division office.

All applicants are encouraged to attend the workshop on developing the promotion portfolio presented by previous successful applicants. This workshop is to be coordinated by the Faculty Evaluation and Improvement of Instruction Committee through the Office of Professional Development. The Division Dean is responsible for ensuring that the promotion portfolio is in the proper form and complete before it is submitted to the Division Promotion Committee. This is signified by the signatures of both the Division Dean and the applicant on the Promotion Portfolio Routing Sheet, Form 2321/001C (see Attachment A). For instances where the portfolios are not acceptable, the applicant will have forfeited the opportunity to apply for promotion during the current year.

After submission of the portfolio, no changes may be made, and no addition or removal of documents will be permitted. After notification of promotion decisions, Promotion Portfolios submitted in hard copy (those not submitted via the optional online Canvas Promotion Portfolio portal) are returned to candidates through the academic divisions.

C. Denial of Promotion

Faculty who are denied promotion are encouraged to consult with the Office of Professional Development for guidance in preparing a portfolio for a future application period.

D. Division Promotion Committees

Promotion Portfolios from all faculty members seeking promotion will be submitted to the appropriate Division Promotion Committee on the date specified in the timeline. Promotion Portfolios are confidential. Division Deans will ensure that Promotion Portfolios are maintained and reviewed in a secured location.

The first meeting of the Division Promotion Committee will be convened by the Division Dean according to the timeline, at which time the Committee will elect a chair. The first order of business will be to verify the date of hiring/promotion of each applicant. The Committee may remove from consideration any applicant not meeting the eligibility requirements.

Individual members of the Division Committee will read the promotion portfolio and determine whether a candidate meets the criteria for promotion. The results of each committee member will be recorded on Division Committee Individual Recommendation Forms, Form 2321/002 (Attachment B). The Committee will then meet to vote “yes” or “no” on each candidate. The final determination is made by majority vote or consensus.

The Division Committee Recommendation Form, Form 2321/003, (Attachment C) will be completed by the Committee Chair. This form and any attached support of denials will be included with the portfolios to be sent forward to the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs according to the timeline.

E. College Promotion Committee

The first meeting of the College Promotion Committee will be convened by the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs according to the timeline. At this time, the Committee will elect a chair. The first order of business of the College Promotion Committee will be to verify the date of hiring/promotion of each applicant. The College Promotion Committee may remove from consideration any applicant not meeting the eligibility requirements.

Individual members of the College Promotion Committee will read the promotion portfolio and determine whether the candidate meets the criteria for promotion. The results of each committee member will be recorded on College Committee Individual Recommendation Forms, Form 2321/006, (Attachment F).

The next evaluation by the College Promotion Committee will take place only after each Committee member has evaluated each applicant. The Committee will meet to vote “yes” or “no” on each candidate. The final determination is by majority vote or consensus. In the case of a tie, the portfolio will be forwarded to the Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council.

The College Committee Recommendation Form, Form 2321/005 (Attachment E) will be completed by the Committee Chair according to the established timeline. The Committee Chair will meet with the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs to compare the College Committee Recommendation Form with the Division Committee Recommendation Form to determine if any candidates received a split vote, one “yes” and one “no.” If so, the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs will convene the Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council to resolve the situation.

Once resolved, the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs will meet with the Chair of the College Promotion Committee to make any necessary changes to the final, comprehensive list of recommended promotions before presenting it to the Chancellor.

F. Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council

The Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council is convened by the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs to address split-votes between the College Committee and the Division Committee (one “yes” and one “no”). Individual members of the Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council will read the Promotion Portfolios and determine whether or not a candidate has met the criteria for promotion. The results of these evaluations will be recorded on Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council Individual Recommendation Forms, Form 2321/006 (Attachment F).

The Council will then meet to vote “yes” or “no” on each candidate. The determination on whether or not a candidate is eligible for promotion is to be made by majority vote or consensus. The decision of the Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council will be final. The Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council Recommendation Form, Form 2321/007 (Attachment G) will be completed and provided to the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs.

G. Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs

After the Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council meets, the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs will contact the College Promotion Committee Chair. Both will review the Division Committee Recommendation Form, the College Committee Recommendation Form, and the Academic Affairs Promotion Appeals Council Recommendation Form. They will compile the final, comprehensive list of recommended promotions and present it to the Chancellor by the date specified in the timeline.

The Chair of the College Committee will make recommendations concerning changes and procedure in the promotion process.

The Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs will notify candidates who were denied promotion in writing of the denial.

The Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs will hold the promotion portfolios in a secure location. After notification of promotion decisions, promotion portfolios are returned to candidates through the academic divisions.

H. Chancellor

The Chancellor will provide the College’s recommended list of all qualified candidates for initial promotion to the Board of Supervisors for the Louisiana Community and Technical College System. The Chancellor will notify by letter those candidates who were promoted at the time of their promotion.

3. Permanent Timeline

The following timeline is a general guideline; however, circumstances may require adjustments to the timeline on a yearly basis. In addition, whenever the designated day falls on a holiday in any year, the timeline will be adjusted accordingly, using either the last working day before or after the holiday, as appropriate.

Each year the specific dates for the Promotion-in-Rank Timeline will be determined and distributed by the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs on Convocation Day in August.
