

Communications, Marketing, and Public Relations
CRISIS COMMUNICATION PLAN

The following crisis communication plan is a specific blueprint to be used in the event of a crisis at Delgado Community College.

A crisis can be an emergency or a non-emergency:

Emergencies – any situation that may involve or threaten to cause loss of life or severe injury to employees, students or visitors (e.g. intruders, fires, explosions, vehicular mishaps, severe weather events.)

Non-emergencies – any situation that threatens the College but does not pose a direct physical threat to employees, students or property (e.g. power outages, street closures.)

I. Internal Crisis Communications: Campus and Site Locations

In the event of an emergency, employees should call 911 and notify Campus Police at (504) 671-6111 during business hours, Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., and call (504) 818-6254 on weekends or after hours. Campus Police will respond to the situation and summon additional help if needed (e.g. ambulances, firefighters, New Orleans Police Dept.). As soon as is practical, Campus Police will notify the Executive Dean's Office/site administrator, the Chancellor's Office, the Chief Communications, Advancement and Strategic Initiatives Officer, and the Office of Communications and Marketing. The Chancellor's Office will notify the Vice Chancellors, Chief Communications, Advancement and Strategic Initiatives Officer, and then the Office of Communications, Marketing, and Public Relations, which will notify the media and the rest of the College community. In the event of imminent danger, Campus Police will notify the College community via text messaging, email, and voice mail message broadcast to college office phones.

II. Crisis Communication Plan

Statement of Purpose

One of the goals of the Office of Communications, Marketing, and Public Relations is to respond quickly, accurately and fully to all legitimate requests for information about any crisis that affects the College, its employees, its students, its property, or its public image, with full regard for individual privacy and legal responsibility.

Under the direction of the Chancellor, crisis communication will be coordinated with the Louisiana Community and Technical College System Staff and the College's Office of Communications, Marketing, and Public Relations. Spokespersons for the College will include the College Chancellor and anyone he/she designates as appropriate for the issue including the Chief Communications, Advancement and Strategic Initiatives Officer and the Director of Communications, Marketing and Public Relations.

All media inquiries should be referred to (504) 671-5478, Communications, Marketing, and Public Relations.

The Chief Communications, Advancement and Strategic Initiatives Officer and Office of Communications, Marketing, and Public Relations will maintain a list of priority contacts in the media for crisis communication and a plan for rapidly informing to the College community. The Chief Communications, Advancement and Strategic Initiatives Officer and the Office of Communications, Marketing, and Public Relations will annually review the crisis plan and make revisions as needed to improve effectiveness.

Internal Crisis Communication Procedures

In the event of an emergency crisis: As soon as practical, Campus Police will inform: The Chancellor's Office, the appropriate site administrator, the Chief Communications, Advancement and Strategic Initiatives Officer, and the Office of Communications, Marketing, and Public Relations.

In the event of a non-emergency crisis: Refer all media inquiries to the Chief Communications, Advancement and Strategic Initiatives Officer and the Office of Communications, Marketing, and Public Relations.

e-mail and text messaging to faculty and staff, and to media for broadcast assistance in informing students/faculty/staff of college closing.

External Crisis Communications

Emergency Communication Headquarters

Emergency communication will be coordinated through Chief Communications, Advancement and Strategic Initiatives Officer and the Office of Communications, Marketing, and Public Relations (Building 37, 615 City Park Avenue) and made available through social media, direct email, Delgado website, news media broadcasts, and news media websites.

On-Site Media Headquarters

To assist reporters, the College will establish a Media Headquarters at a location on campus or close by (to be determined). Written material (e.g. news releases, updates on the emergency) will be provided here to credentialed members of the press. The Office of Communications, Marketing, and Public Relations Administrative Assistant will serve as the staff coordinator and will be responsible for providing access to telephones, a fax machine, and computers.

Emergency Number for Family and Friends of Victims

Communications, Marketing, and Public Relations: (504) 671-5497

Personal Injury/ Death Communication Procedures

1. The Chief Communications, Advancement and Strategic Initiatives Officer and the Director of Communications, Marketing, and Public Relations. are the only spokespersons authorized to release the names of persons injured or killed on property owned, leased, or controlled by the College or if off-campus, while on official college business.
2. Names of injured deceased persons will not be released until after next-of-kin are notified. Notification will be conducted by the appropriate site administrator, who will then immediately notify the Chief Communications, Advancement and Strategic Initiatives Officer and the Office of Communications, Marketing, and Public Relations, (504) 671-5497.
3. After notification of next-of-kin, the Chief Communications, Advancement and Strategic Initiatives Officer and the Office of Communications, Marketing, and Public Relations authorized spokesperson will immediately release the names of injured or deceased persons as relevant facts.
4. All inquiries regarding the safety or condition of employees or students should be referred immediately to the Chief Communications, Advancement and Strategic Initiatives Officer and the Office of Communication, Marketing, and Public Relations, (504) 671-5497.

Guidelines for Crisis Communication Materials:

(1) News Releases should include:

- Nature of the emergency
- Where, when it happened
- Delgado's official response to the emergency

Last updated: 7/12/23

- Measures taken to contain it
- Physical extent of the emergency (number of employees/students injured or killed, property damage).
- Plans to return to normal operation
- If families have been notified, the names of injured and/or deceased
- Names and phone numbers of college personnel to contact for more information.

(2) Background information for college employees should include:

- brief factual summary of event
- guidelines for the employees' discussion of event with external audience
- names of persons to contact for the Chief Communications, Advancement and Strategic Initiatives Officer and the Office of Communications, Marketing, and Public Relations for more information

Spokesperson Briefing

Spokesperson will:

- Ensure that media receive timely, factual information
- Provide single, consistent source of information to media
- Minimize contradictory information from Delgado Community College
- Provide background to emergency event

News Conferences

News conferences should be used only in those situations in which the information to be disseminated is significant and must be communicated quickly and efficiently to a large number of people at the same time. In severe, lengthy emergencies that result in large numbers of injured or deceased, or involve massive property damage, it may be necessary to conduct news conferences as frequently as every hour.

The news conference will be arranged and directed by the Chief Communications, Advancement and Strategic Initiatives Officer. The College Chancellor or his designated spokesperson (depending upon the nature of the emergency) will serve as the primary spokespersons.

News Conference Materials:

Media Kit – including news release(s), fact sheet(s), copies of statements by speakers at news conferences, and biographical information of speakers.

Media List – and follow up distribution of media kit to those who did not attend news conference.

Post-Emergency Follow Up

Responsibility for communication with key audiences does not end with the crisis. It may be necessary to update audiences for days, weeks, and months after a crisis, depending upon its severity.

Media:

Communicate updates on progress toward restoration to normal operations.

Employees, Students:

Distribute to home address at least one news update, from the Chancellor, on progress toward restoration to normal operations.

Evaluation:

As soon after the crisis as possible, assess the plan, how it was implemented, the outcomes, and make recommendations to revise the plan accordingly.
