POLICY STATEMENT

Delgado Community College is fully committed to ensuring compliance with the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act and its Amending Act of 2008 (collectively ADA) to include:

- Title I: Prohibits discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities in all employment practices, including recruitment, hiring, advancement, compensation, fringe benefits, job training and other terms, conditions and privileges of employment. Upon request, Delgado Community College will engage in an interactive process and may approve a reasonable accommodation, unless the Requestor is not a qualified individual; doing so poses an undue hardship to the College; or poses a direct threat to the health or safety of the individual with a disability or others.
- Title II: Ensures qualified individuals with disabilities have equal access to the full range of programs, services, activities and facilities of the College. Upon request, Delgado Community College may provide a reasonable accommodation, unless the Requestor is not a qualified individual; doing so would fundamentally alter the nature of the College's service, program or activity; or poses a direct threat to the health or safety of the individual with a disability or others.

Reasonable accommodations for employees may include job restructuring through part-time or modified work schedules, special equipment, etc., and will be determined by (1) operational necessity and (2) financial costs and expenses. Reasonable accommodations must not impose undue hardship on the College. Factors to be considered in determining undue hardship include College operational necessity, the nature and cost of the accommodation, and the resulting personnel requirements.
